

Local Ministries

CTR supports a number of local ministries, from the North Shore to the wider area of greater New England.

General Ministries

Amirah House

Amirah is a faith-based nonprofit organization located in the Boston area that strives “to provide a refuge for those seeking to break free from exploitation and heal in community on their journey toward lasting hope” through our safe home.

Boston Fellows

Boston Fellows exists to equip young professionals in the Boston area with the intellectual tools, spiritual habits, professional development, community, and network to start well: to envision and plan for a career with meaning and purpose for the greater good of our Boston workplaces and culture, for Christ and His Kingdom.

Cape Ann Interfaith Commission

Cape Ann Interfaith Commission helps 2,000 low income, disadvantaged people annually; 700 escaped homelessness, 12,000+ dinners annually at Harvest Meals; 175+ children served in December thru Angels Ministry; delivers 12,500 lunches annually to the homeless Shelter, and more. No paid labor, 200 adult volunteers +150 youth.

Family Promise North Shore Boston

Four weeks each year, CTR, Holy Trinity Methodist Church Danvers, and community volunteers provide meals, overnight housing, and a home-like atmosphere to local homeless families. The goal is to give what they need most: rest, rejuvenation, hope, respect, confidence, and a sense of control in their lives.

Hagar's Sisters

Hagar's Sisters is ending the cycle of domestic abuse by providing domestic violence education and support within the spiritual context. Whether she is a woman of deep faith or a woman who questions if God is real, Hagar's Sisters is a safe place to explore the tough spiritual questions every woman has in the midst and aftermath of abuse.

Straight Ahead Ministries

Founded in 1987, this ministry exists to see Jesus Christ transform lives of juvenile offenders by offering faith and character development, job readiness training and placement, education support, and service opportunities. By working in partnership with organizations, youth service agencies, businesses and churches, their vision is to create an international movement whereby every juvenile offender has the opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel and become all that God intends them to be.

Overseas Ministries

There are a number of overseas missionaries and missions groups supported by the parish. These ministries bring the love and message of Christ to countless lives on a daily basis, and many are from our congregation.

Africa

Dr. Joshua Harper with SIM (Sudan Interior Mission)

Josh teaches at the Africa Graduate School of Theology at Africa International University in Nairobi, Kenya. He was both ordained and commissioned as a CTR missionary in December 2013.

Uganda Christian University Partners

We have had an important role in the establishment of Uganda Christian University located in Mukoto. The CTR missions budget supports Christian education at the University in the form of student academic scholarships.

Bolivia

Niños con Valor

CTR supports Niños con Valor, an organization in Cochabamba that provides a loving, Christian, family-style home to 36 children who have been orphaned, abandoned or neglected. Many CTR parishioners have a long involvement with this wonderful ministry and last year, a short term mission team visited the NCV homes. Fourteen CTR families participate in our child sponsorship program.

Romania

New Horizons Foundation

The New Horizons Foundation, under the leadership of Brandi & Dana Bates (Gordon College '92 &'93), have pioneered Adventure Education (the Viata Program) and Service Learning (IMPACT Clubs) in the impoverished Jiu coal-mining Valley of Romania. Since 1999, these programs have become the largest youth movement in the country. New Horizons focuses on getting young people, from post-Communist legacies, to experience how God designed life to work.

Honduras

Jack Melvin

Jack Melvin is a member of CTR who serves as a missionary to Honduras under the Society of Anglican Missionaries and Senders (SAMS). Jack is an architect who designs and helps build churches, retreat centers, and low cost homes for the Diocese of Honduras.

Global

Anglican Relief and Development Fund

Inspired by God's radical Grace, ARDF exists to empower Anglicans in the developing world to demonstrate the Love of Christ to those in need in their own communities through providing:

- Clean water for the thirsty
- Jobs for the poor
- Education for children
- Food for the hungry
- Hope for those without hope

Church Plants

Light of Christ Anglican Church - Evan Pillsbury

This is a new mission to Portland, Maine. Its vision is to see Christ's Light set aflame throughout the cultures and communities of Greater Portland. Already God is calling together a gifted community to spark the light of His Kingdom.

Church of the Way - Ben Giuffrida

This church is committed to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of Rhode Island and bringing an Anglican presence to the area. The Church of the Way is in Cumberland, RI. It is the first church in the state to be a part of the Anglican Church of North America.
